SCHOOL TEACHER IS CHARGED WITH MURDER AT PUPIL'S DEATH

Kenton County School Teacher Is Arrested on Charge of Murder Following Death of Girl Pupil Who Had Been Missing Some Time.

Covington, Ky., May 26.—Scarcely had the funeral services for Zeiman Clemons, fourteen-year-old daughter of Lee Clemons, wealthy former of Bracht, Ky., twenty-four miles south of Covington, reached a conclusion yesterday when Thomas Sebree, Jr., 20 years old, a school teacher at Bracht, was arrested on a charge of murder in connection with the girl's death.

While the funeral services were being conducted at Bracht, Orie S. Ware, Commonwealth Attorney of Kenton county, and Edward J. Tracy, Kenton county attorney, held a conference, following which the warrant for Sebree's arrest was filed.

It was charged that Miss Clemons, who was a pupil at the Bracht school, where Sebree was a teacher, disappeared several months ago and that in the first week of April she was found at the home of an aunt in Covington seriously ill. She was removed to her home, where she died late Tuesday morning just before noon.

On April 21, three weeks after Clemons had located his daughter, he went to Covington and filed an affidavit against Sebree with Judge John B. Read in the Kenton county court charging Sebree with a statutory offense in connection with the disappearance and illness of his daughter.

Sebree was arrested by Sheriff Peter F. Thiel and was taken to the Kenton County Court, where his bond was fixed at $10,000. The bond was signed by his father, Thomas Sebree, Sr., also a wealthy farmer of Bracht, Kentucky.

But after this the girl steadily grew worse and every time the case came up for hearing it had to be postponed because of her condition. Sebree has not been given a hearing on the statutory charge and it was said yesterday that the murder charge which has just been filed will take precedence over the first charge.

Sebree was re-arrested yesterday on the murder charge by Deputy Sheriff Robert Durr of Independence, Ky., and was taken before Judge John B. Read. The warrant charging murder was issued by acting Judge John W. Chambers of Independence.

Judge Read fixed Sebree's bond at $10,000, which was promptly signed by his father. The preliminary hearing on the murder charge will be held Friday before Judge John B. Read in Kenton County Court, Covington.

BULLETS FLY AS OFFICERS ATTEMPT TO MAKE ARREST

Lewis County Officers Attempt to Arrest Leslie Ruggles at Epworth and Are Met With Flying Bullets.

Leslie Ruggles, for whom Lewis county officers held a warrant of arrest, was wounded and Ernest Moore, a bystander, was also wounded in a fight between Ruggles and two officers at Epworth, Lewis county, Thursday afternoon.

Deputy Sheriff McGill and Constable James Keith, of Lewis county, drove to Epworth with a warrant for Ruggles' arrest. As their automobile stopped in front of the blacksmith shop where Ruggles is employed, they were greeted by Ruggles. The officers informed him that they had a warrant for his arrest and he is said to have immediately jerked out a revolver, beginning to shoot at the officers. Both officers drew their guns and answered fire. Ruggles fled into the woods near the village and could not be found.

Neither of the officers were wounded but Ruggles was shot twice in the right arm and Ernest Moore, 16 years of age, who was standing near the blacksmith shop, received one of the stray bullets in his right leg.

BONDING COMPANY MUST PAY BOND OF L. V. WILLIAMS

Judgment Rendered Compelling Bond Company to Pay Loan Association Defaulter Secretary's Bond.

(Ripley Bee.)

The important case of Chambers Baird, receiver of the People's Building and Loan Co., of Ripley, against L. V. Williams and American Guaranty Co., of Columbus, Ohio, on the surety bond for $10,000 of Williams as defaulter secretary of the Building and Loan Company, was on trial last week in the Common Pleas Court, at Georgetown, before a jury and Judge Jas. W. Tarbell.

The trial lasted from Monday morning until Friday evening and was bitterly contested.

The jury returned a judgment against Williams and the American Guaranty Co. for the full amount of $10,000.

Messrs. E. R. Young, of Ripley, and O. E. Young, of Georgetown, were attorneys for the receiver, and Mr. R. L. Flite, of Georgetown, and Mr. Kable, of Columbus, were attorneys for the defendants. The receiver was also assisted in the trial by Mr. Nicholas Risch, of Cincinnati, former State Examiner of building and loan associations, who discovered the shortage in October, 1920, and by Mr. Edward L. Campbell, of Ripley. These two gentlemen performed most of the heavy work in preparing for the trial and presenting the proofs of the embezzlement. All of the books and property of the People's Building and Loan Co., making a truck load, was transported to Georgetown and used in the court room, making the largest amount of documentary material ever presented in a case in this court.

The surety bond for $10,000 on which suit was entered was dated March 7, 1916, and the receiver was limited to making proof of shortage since that time to October, 1920, when Williams gave himself up.

A shortage of over $71,000 was claimed, and proof of over $51,000 was finally presented to the jury. A large number of witnesses were called and heard. The defense of the American Guaranty Company, was entirely technical, as they could not deny the proofs of the large shortage. Their chief claim of defense was that at the time when they issued their first bond of $2,500 for L. V. Williams as secretary in 1913, a statement of the affairs and condition of the People's Building and Loan Co. was made by the company showing that it was in good shape and that no shortage then existed. It was claimed that this statement was untrue, and that as the Guaranty Co. relied on it they were not liable on the bond. But no proof was offered nor admitted that the officers of the People's Building and Loan Co., other than L. V. Williams had any knowledge of any crookedness. In addition L. V. Williams, who made application for the bond and who was the only guilty party, was also the agent of the Surety Company. Thus their only material defense failed, and the jury promptly returned a judgment against them.

Two Local Men Have "Good Time" at Tolesboro—Woman Jury Loses Keys on Them.

The Vanceburg Sun says: Tolesboro village was enlivened Friday evening when an auto rolled in from Maysville containing four drunken men who proceeded to blow themselves and shoot a pistol claiming to be bad men. They headed toward Vanceburg and phone put Deputy Sheriff Smith McGill and posse out after them. They met below the Valley and were brought to the jail and locked up. They proved to be Anderson Johnson and Grover Vanee of Quicks Run and J. V. Johnson and Mr. N. Bolling of Maysville. Tuesday the grand jury indicted them for transporting liquor, a bottle containing a small quantity having been found in their car. They were given a trial the same day by a jury composed of nine women and three men who awarded them $300 and 30 days each. Judge Albright then tacked a $5,000 peace bond on Anderson and Johnson and a $1,000 peace bond on the rest. This was quick justice.

MY EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY.

I've reached the end of four score years.
This glorious Sabbath day;
Though toll and care have beat my lot
Along life's rugged way.

The strength of manhood still abides,
My health's robust and strong;
With vigor I perform my work,
The years no more seem long.

The work of life has been by joy,
Its burdens have been light;
The Lord has kept His promise true,
And bore them by His might.

His face has lighted every path,
His hand has led the way;
His presence has dispelled the gloom,
And gladdened every day.

He's given me opportunity—
His greatest gift, save grace—
And opened doors none else could move,
And given me a place.

The world has smiled wher'er I've gone
My wants have all been met;
I owe the world my heart's best love,
But not a cent of debt.

The future's bright as God's pure word,
No clouds o'erspread my sky,
I'm listening for the call to come
And dwell With Him on high.

But should He leave me yet awhile
To finish up my task,
Twill be my joy to do His will.
There's nothing else I ask

To those who kindly thought of me and sent a loving word I offer thanks and ask for them a blessing from the Lord.

FINE FOR DRIVER OF CAR WHICH KILLED PEDESTRIAN.

Louisville. — A fine of $300 was imposed against H. A. Strizover on an indictment charging him with unlawfully failing to stop his automobile to give aid to a person injured by it. The Commonwealth elected to try him on this indictment instead of the one charging involuntary manslaughter. It was alleged that an automobile driven by Strizover struck Bernard Corrigan, inflicting injuries resulting in Corrigan's death. J. Ouerbaecher, a witness, testified that after Corrigan was struck the auto speeded away and that he followed it in his car and caught the number.

Washington, May 24. — (Special correspondence) — Those marplots who have professed to see friction between the executive and legislative branches of the government were confounded by the action of the House in standing solidly behind Attorney General Daugherty in his determination to prosecute those who defrauded their government in the war. Within three days after Mr. Daugherty appeared before the Appropriations Committee, presented his evidence, and asked for a special appropriation of $500,000 and a special grand jury, the House had enacted legislation granting both requests. Congressman Martin B. Madson, chairman of the committee, spoke the minds of his associates when he said that some men "who think they have power in the nation today will find themselves behind the bars."

No Wavering at Washington.

President Harding's declination to send American delegates to The Hague conference next month was just what was expected. It would have been most surprising if the administration had seen fit to accede to the allied invitation. The conditions that will surround the meeting at The Hague are no whit different from those attending the conference at Genoa, and no reason has developed for any change in the American attitude. Over a year ago Secretary Hughes said this country could not recognize Russia until production had been made possible in that country, neither could credit be extended until capital is safeguarded in its investments. The diplomats of Europe have seemed unable to comprehend that proposition, and Mr. Hughes has been compelled to repeat it many times since it was first uttered.

Air Traffic.

It is the settled policy of the Republic's administration to develop commercial aviation not only as an end in itself but as a defense in time of war. The Post Office Appropriation Act for the next fiscal year will contain an item of $1,900,000 for the air mail service; it is the plan to develop night landing fields for mail planes at important centers; a line of signal lights is to be established from New York to San Francisco by way of Chicago, Omaha, and Denver; a bill is pending in Congress to organize a bureau of aeronautics in the Department of Commerce; and the War, Navy, and Post Office Departments, and the Shipping Board are to cooperate in building up a strong commercial air fleet. It is realized by all experts that air fleets will be the first line of future defense. Other nations are working with that fact in mind, and many of them have already outdistanced the United States in the freight and passenger carrying service. This country is foremost in the development of the air mail, and will forge to the front in the other branches of the art.

Prosperity Growing.

Mr. James A. Farrel, president of the United States Steel Corporation, makes this prediction: "Within two or three years this country will need every ship now out of activity in our domestic and foreign trade and we shall have cargoes in all ships now idle and need still more ships." One of the qualifications that has placed Mr. Farrel at the head of United States Steel is his capacity to make accurate predictions of business futures. There is every indication now of the steady growth of the American merchant marine and of our foreign trade under the sound policies adopted by the Republican Administration.

PROTECTING THE SMALL INVESTOR.

The following item is from Albert W. Atwood's article in the Saturday Evening Post of May 20th entitled "Protecting the Small Investor".

It cannot be stated with too much emphasis that anyone who really wants a safe investment with a good interest return can secure the same without the slightest difficulty. On December 15th last the wife of the President of the United States purchased from Mr. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, the first Treasury Savings Certificate sold by the United States Government. These are now on sale at all postoffices and many banks and can be had by mail direct from the Treasury Department. They pay 25 per cent on the money invested for a five-year period. The rate guaranteed by the Government to pay this figure, and guaranteed against any decline in price. They are beyond question the safest and surest investment available to any American citizen, and if they are not good, then nothing in the world is.

There has been a lot of talk and cheap platitudes about the necessity and advantages of thrift and savings, but a man cannot dig a garden without tools and he cannot save without a secure place to put his money. A splendid work is done by the savings banks, but they do not cover the entire country by any means. There are millions of people whom they do not reach. Life insurance covers an even wider field, but it is only partially a saving and investment proposition. The Government is the one agency that can appeal to everybody, and at last after much experimenting during and following the war, it has devised a permanent form of small investment which is simple, convenient and which meets the needs of all except the wealthiest classes.

People were asked to buy Liberty Bonds during the war on patriotic rounds. Although the bonds have now recovered in value they declined severely for a time and many people lost heavily. Though the Government is selling Treasury Savings Certificates partly because it still needs money, another reason is to give people something in the way of an investment that cannot decline in price to make up for the losses sustained during the war.

Many people are not in a position to study or analyze investments. Many have no time for such study. There is the country doctor who works day and night and does not have time even to keep up with the most important developments in his own profession. Most town and city doctors are little if any better off. Quite often their incomes are relatively large, and too often they fall victims to the et-rich-quic lure. But the doctor can put his money into Treasury Savings Certificates without any worry for the future.

These certificates are always sold at the same price, $20, $50 and $500. In Beth P. Fleming, country Constable, 223 Limestone street, Mayville, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years when I have been greatly benefited by them. At times my kidneys get out of order and I suffer with a dull constant ache through the small of my back and the kidney secretions are irregular in passage. A box or so of Doan's have never failed to relieve the trouble in a short time."

The above statement was given November 14, 1916, and on November 22, 1920, Mr. Fleming added: "I am glad to renew the statement I gave for publication some years ago as the cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me is still permanent. I confirm my former statement in every detail as it was all true."

Price 60c., at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy — get Doan's Kidney Pills — the same that Mr. Fleming had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mrs. Buffalo, N. Y.

ANOTHER MILLION POUNDS POOLED TOBACCO SOLD

Announcement Made Thursday of Big Sale of Re-Dried Tobacco By the Pool.

Lexington, Ky., May 26.—An additional million pounds of the re-dried tobacco of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association has been sold by President James C. Stone and several other big sales are imminent, it was said at the offices of the association yesterday.

No information was given out as to the purchaser of the thousand-hoghead lot or the prospective purchasers.

Before Managing Director Eugene Meyer, Jr., Assistant Floyd R. Harrison and General Counsel G. C. Henderson, of the War Finance Corporation, left Lexington Wednesday night for Chattanooga they inspected the tobacco which is represented by the warehouse receipts given as collateral for the War Finance Corporation loan and were shown the identification tags on each hogshead which distinguish the tobacco pledged as collateral from the large amount of tobacco held by the association which is free of any loan or collateral pledge. They were impressed with the scope of the thing and the system of doing business, and expressed pleasure at hav-

Mt. Sterling Club Is Unable to Break Maysville's "No Defeat" Record In Thursday's Game.

The Cardinals increased their winning streak to nine straight games by defeating the Mt. Sterling aggregation at east end park Thursday to the tune of 10 to 0 and batted Townsend, their star pitcher, to all corners of the lot. Their net rampage was 12 hits including a home run, two doubles, distributed among all nine players. Slabback came to life with three hits followed by Class with two, one a home run. Bosken started the crowd in the fifth with a back hand catch of a liner near the right foul line. "Home run" Charlie Ellis, whose name has been changed to "pop up" played up to standard with two hits besides fielding well.

Summary — 2 base hits, Slabback, Harding; Home run, Class; Sacrifice hit, Connolly; Sacrifice fly, Slabback; Stolen base, Slabback; Double play, Keyser to Lackey to Barks to Lackey; Ellis to Day, Barks to Day, Kresser to Harding; Base on balls, off Townsend, off Shaw 1; Struck out, by Townsend 2, Shaw 1; Hit better, Martin (by Shaw); Wild pitch, Townsend; Balk, Townsend; Left on base, Mt. Sterling 5, Maysville 4; Umpire, Flem; Time, two hours.

Notes of the Game.
It looks good to see hits distributed among all the players, specially enough to go around, instead of a few hits confined to a certain part of the batting list as was the case in the first few games. A few more games at the present batting clip and we will approach the .300 mark.

The Cards have quite a find in their new addition first baseman, Harding, who signed a contract Thursday. He is a streak of lightning on the bases and plays the game like an expert. It was necessary to do something till Dresel's thumb mends when he will go to the outfield and Bosken take his regular turn in the box as the four games a week schedule seems almost a certainty.

All other Blue Grass League games were postponed on account of rain. At Winchester the Lexington-Winchester game was called in the third with the score 0 to 0. Cynthiana and Parkersburg never started.

Mrs. Mabel Gabbreath, of German town, is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wash, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. D. Cochran, left Thursday afternoon for their home in Danville.
